APPENDIX A.

Note:

The following are the relevant parts of the statutes in this petition, i.e., Title 6, Section 366, Title 6, Sections 151 and 151A of the Code of Laws of the District of Columbia:

Act of March 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1338 c. 854, sec. 918; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 536, c. 1329. (Title 6, Section 366):

"In all trials for capital offenses the accused and the United States shall each be entitled to twenty peremptory challenges. In trials for offenses punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary the accused and the United States shall each be entitled to ten peremptory challenges. In all other cases, civil as well as criminal, in which the plaintiff is the United States or the District of Columbia, each party shall be entitled to three peremptory challenges; and if there are several defendants, they shall be treated as one person in the allowance of such challenges."

Act of April 5, 1938, C. 72, 52 Stat. 198, Title 6, Section 151, Code of Laws of the District of Columbia:

"If any person shall within the District keep, set up, or promote, or be concerned as owner, agent, or clerk, or in any other manner, in managing, carrying on, promoting, or advertising, directly, or indirectly, any policy lottery, policy shop, or any lottery, or shall sell or transfer any chance, right, or interest, tangible, or intangible, in any policy lottery, or any lottery or shall sell or transfer any ticket, certificate, bill, token, or other device, purporting or intended to guarantee or assure to any person or entitle him to any chance of drawing or obtaining a prize, to be drawn in any lottery, or in a game or device known as policy lottery or policy or shall for himself or another person, sell or transfer, or have in his possession for the purpose of sale or transfer, a chance or ticket in or share of a ticket in any lottery or any such bill, certificate, token, or other device, he shall be fined upon conviction of each said offense not more than $1000 or be imprisoned not more than three years, or both. The possession of any copy or record of any such chance, right, or interest, or of any such ticket, certificate, bill, token, or other device shall be prima facie evidence that the possessor of such copy or record did, at the time and place of such possession, keep, set up, or promote, or was at such time and place concerned as owner, agent, or clerk, or otherwise in managing, carrying on, promoting, or advertising a policy lottery, policy shop, or lottery."

Act of April 5, 1938, C. 72, 52 Stat. 198, Title 6, Section 151A of the Code of Laws of the District of Columbia:

"If any person shall within the District have in his possession, knowingly, any ticket, certificate, bill slip, token, paper, writing, or other device used, or to be used, or adopted, devised, or designed for the purpose of playing, carrying on, or conducting any lottery, or the game or device commonly known as policy lottery or policy, he shall be fined upon conviction of each said offense not more than $500 or be imprisoned for not more than six months, or both."
